Guardian Credit Union Establishes Relief Fund for Sikh temple victims

West Milwaukee, WI – August 6, 2012: Guardian Credit Union has set up a relief fund for the victims and their families of the Sikh temple shootings.

"This incident has shaken not only the Oak Creek community, but the Milwaukee metro community and the state," said Steve Wesson, President and CEO of Guardian Credit Union. "We are part of this community and our deepest sympathies and condolences go out to those affected by this senseless crime. All donations collected will go directly to the Sikh temple."

Community members can stop into any one of Guardian's branches in West Allis, West Milwaukee, Oak Creek, Waukesha, Menomonee Falls or South Milwaukee to donate to the fund.

Guardian will match the first $2000 that is raised for the relief fund.

Guardian Credit Union is a not-for-profit, member owned financial cooperative open to anyone living or working in Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Walworth, Washington, and Waukesha counties. Family members are also eligible for membership, regardless of where they live. For more information on Guardian Credit Union membership, contact the member service line at 414.546.7450 or visit guardiancu.org.
