

CU COMMUNITY DAYS

Making The Difference in Wisconsin

Ideas for CU Community Days

Addressing Food Insecurity

- Volunteer at a local food pantry.
- Tend a local community garden.
- Hold a food drive and collect donations from staff, board members, and credit union members to donate to a food bank.
- Contact local schools to pay off school lunch debts.
- Host a donation matching campaign with an organization combatting food insecurity.

Honoring & Supporting Indigenous People

- Partner with local tribal councils and see what your credit union can do to help.
- Support Indigenous businesses.
- Create a donation matching campaign for an organization supporting Indigenous People—find native-led non-profits in Wisconsin here.

Additional Ideas

- Contact local non-profits and charitable groups to see what your credit union can do to help.
- Host a blood drive.

CU COMMUNITY DAYS

Making The Difference in Wisconsin

Ideas for CU Community Days

Additional Ideas, Continued

- Contact local non-profits and charitable groups to see what your credit union can do to help.
- Host a blood drive.
- Collect used books in the branch to stock little libraries in your community.
- Collect supplies for distribution to schools in your community.
- Partner with local humane societies to host an adoption event.
- Read to children at the local library or school.
- Collect toiletries and/or feminine hygiene products for local organizations.
- Purchase items on Amazon wish lists for local non-profits.
- Host a shred event.
- Make birthday baskets (cake mix, frosting, candles, and a small present).
- Host a coat drive for the upcoming winter season.
- Collect Halloween costumes for local children's groups.
- Collect professional clothing for local professional development groups.
- Distribute gift cards to folks in the community.
- Work on a Habitat for Humanity project.