League Champion Program
Writing Prompts

One of the additional contribution options for The League Champion Program is providing a written testimonial or short guest article, approximately 300 words in length.

The following writing prompts are meant to serve as inspiration as you prepare a testimonial or short article, which can cover a recent event you attended, your League membership, your experiences in the Champion program, or your experiences as a credit union professional…and that's just to name a few!

NOTE: All of these questions do NOT require answers, and feel free to disregard the questions and take your own unique approach if desired!

- Why did you choose to attend event name?
- How was your experience at event name?
- What was one of the most impactful takeaways for you?
- How will you apply what you learned at event name to your professional development/your credit union?
- If you were to recommend event name to another credit union colleague, what would you say?
- What makes this event different from others you've attended in the past?
- What did you enjoy most about event name?
- What surprised you most about event name?
- What would you tell someone who's considering attending a future event name?
- If there's one word you could use to describe event name, what would it be and why?
- What was one unexpected benefit of event name?
- What was your main concern about attending event name, and how were your fears put to rest?
- Is there anything else you'd like others to know about event name/League events in general?
- If you were to recommend attending League events to another credit union colleague, what would you say?
- What has exceeded your expectations?
- How has your experience as a League member/League Champion impacted your career/impacted your understanding of The Credit Union Movement?
- What surprised you most about The League?
- What do you like most about The League/League Champion Program?
- What would you tell someone who's considering applying to be a League Champion?